LYLE B. MAZIN, ESQ.

Experience, Knowledge & Strong Character

> While Hollywood has been sensationalizing the practice of criminal law with fictional lawyers such as “you better call Saul,” the truth of matter is, that if in reality you are facing criminal prosecution, you better dial Lyle.

Lyle B. Mazin is a criminal trial attorney whose success in the courtroom has vaulted him to the forefront of the legal community. A reputation built on his ferocious yet charismatic litigation skills has earned Lyle the respect of his colleagues, prosecutors and judges alike. He is named a Top 100 Trial Lawyer and a Top 40 under 40 Trial Lawyer by the National Trial Lawyers Association. In addition, he was selected as Florida’s Legal Elite and designated a SuperLawyer’s “Rising Star,” a recognition received by less than 2.5% of the lawyers in the State of Florida. Lyle is also a sought after legal commentator frequently providing legal analysis to local and national media outlets such as ABC, FOX News, The Orlando Sentinel and the Wall Street Journal.

One of the most approachable attorneys you may ever meet, Lyle is witty and quick with a joke but he works in a world where the consequences are no laughing matter. With a client list that consists of individuals charged with crimes such as homicide, RICO, armed robbery, drug trafficking, gun and sex crimes, he is often the only thing standing between his clients and decades in prison. To provide those clients with the highest caliber of representation Lyle’s firm utilizes investigators, experts and the most advanced legal research systems available.

“The practice of law is dynamic. Before ever stepping foot in a courtroom you need to be beyond certain to have exhausted every resource available. If you have left a single stone unturned, your client might be one step behind the prosecution and that is one place I will never allow my clients to be.”

Lyle’s tales of drugs and guns might be mesmerizing but he also has a passion for representing first time offenders. He frequently represents first time offenders, such as college students, who have never been exposed to the criminal justice system. The prospect of a criminal conviction can be traumatizing for these individuals and their families. “First time offenders are often good people who had a bad day, or worse yet, people who have been wrongfully accused. No one’s future should be destroyed because of one bad decision and there is no greater challenge than representing the innocent. My father, who is an Attorney in New York, embedded in me the steadfast commitment to stand for those who cannot stand for themselves.”

Combine his vast trial experience with his strong character and it is easy to see why Lyle Mazin is the attorney so many seek to have standing by their side. Having earned his Bachelor’s Degree in Criminal Justice from Florida State University and his Juris Doctorate from the University of Miami School of Law, Lyle Mazin has quickly become one of the most recognizable names in the practice of criminal law. <
